NEW YORK NEWSPAPER OFFICES IN TROU-BLE .- The compositors in the Times, Tribune, News, Transcript and Herald offices left their work on Friday night shortly before midnight, and refused to help get out their respective pa-pers, because the night editors in charge wished to publish an advertisement which came to them in the regular course of business. It seems the Times office deeming the demand of the Printers' Union for sixty cents per 1,000 ems exorbitant, sent an advertisement to the other newspaper offices, offering to give employment to other printers for fifty cents per 1,000 ems. As soon as it was known that such an advertisement had been received, the compositors in the Times, Tribune, News, Transcript and Herald, notified the editors in charge that they would not help to set up their respective papers until they were promised that the advertisement would be rejected. The answer in each case, of course, was, that the compositors, while they had an undoubted right to fix the price at which they would work, decidedly exceeded their prerogatives in saying what advertisements should or should not go into the paper. If that privilege was accorded them they would be both editors and publishers of their respective journals. The Herald finally succumbed; but as we write, (2 a. m.,) the other papers are holding out, and their columns will have a slim appearance, it, indeed, they succeed in getting out at all. We cannot but think that this most unwise and unjust proceeding will sooner or later throw every member of the Printers' Union who sanctioned it, out of employment, so far as this city is concerned.—N. Y. World.

The papers referred to by the World all appeared as usual on Saturday morning, but somewhat shorn of their usual quantity of reading matter.

what a pity that a young man, the hope of his country and darling of his parents, should be snatched from all the prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequence of deviation from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating MARRIAGE reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness indeed. Without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prespect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflections that the happiness of another is blighted with our own. blighted with our own.

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those whe, from education and respectability can alone befriend him. He falls into the hands of ignorant and designing pretenders, who, incapable of curing, filch his pecuniary substance, keep him trifling month after month, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despair leave him with ruined health to sigb over his galling disappointment; or, by the use of that deadly ing disappointment; or, by the use of that deadly poison, hercury, hasten the constitutional symptoms of this terrible disease, such as Affections of the Head, Throat, Nose, Skin, etc., progressing with frightful rapidity until death puts an end to his dreadful sufferings by sending him to that undiscovered country from whose bourne no travele-
